

Capt. Donald E. Born

S2850
1987-1998
1 folder

Rare Books and Manuscripts Division

Indiana State Library

Processed by: Jill Costill, September 1998

Finding aid updated: Edythe Huffman, 2015/11/13

Biographical Note:

Captain Donald E. Born of Indianapolis, Indiana was a pilot in the Vietnam War. He flew a Lockheed 53-555 aircraft nicknamed, "Triple Nickel" and on August 9, 1998, he gave a presentation to the Indianapolis Aero Club about his experiences during the war flying this aircraft. The "Triple Nickel" is on display at the United States Air Force Museum at the Wright-Patterson Air Force Museum in Dayton, Ohio.

Scope and Content Note:

The collection includes an outline of the presentation Capt. Born gave to the Indianapolis Aero Club in 1998 and an article he wrote for the U.S. Air Force Museum Friends Bulletin in 1987. Also included is miscellaneous information regarding the "Triple Nickel" and similar aircraft.

Item Listing:

1987	Article, "'Triple Nickel' and 'College Eye'" by Capt. Donald E. Born. Published in the United States Air Force Museum's Friends Bulletin , Vol. 10, No. 4, Winter 1987-1988.
9 Aug. 1998	Advertising flyer for presentation at the Indianapolis Aero Club by Capt. Donald Born
n.d.	Comparison of specifications of air born warning control systems past and present
n.d.	Outline of presentation titled, "College Eye Mission" given by Capt. Donald Born

Collection Information:

Size of Collection: 1 folder
Collection Dates: 1987-1998
Provenance: Jennie Born, Sept. 1998
Restrictions: None
Reproduction Rights: Permission to reproduce, exhibit, or publish material in this collection must be obtained from the Manuscript Section, Indiana State Library.
Alternate Formats:
Related Holdings:
Notes:
